Part A: Copyright Transfer Form

The undersigned hereby transfers any and all rights in and to the paper including without limitation all copyrights to The International Society for Artificial Life and Robotics, Inc., known as ISAROB. The undersigned hereby represents and warrants that the paper is original and that he/she is the author of the paper, except for material that is clearly identified as to its original source, with permission notices from the copyright owners where required. The undersigned represents that he/she has the power and authority to make and execute this assignment.

In return, ISAROB agrees to the following:

1. Employers/authors retain all proprietary rights in any process, procedure, or article of manufacture described in the paper.
2. Employers/authors may copy, or authorize the copy of the paper, or derivative portions of the paper for company/personal use, provided the copies are not offered for sale, that the source of the material is indicated, and that ISAROB's endorsement is not implied by the use.
3. Employer/authors must request permission from ISAROB for copy privileges not covered by items 1, 2 above (such as third party requests for reprinting, republishing, etc.).
4. ISAROB recognizes that the Japanese and U.S. governments have royalty-free permission to copy, or authorize the copy of, all/portions of the paper for official Japanese and U.S. governments purposes only, when the contained work was done under Japanese and U.S. governments grant/contract and the grant/contract so requires.

If the paper is not accepted and published by ISAROB, or is withdrawn by the author(s) before acceptance, this agreement becomes null and void.

Information for Employers/Authors

It is the policy of ISAROB to own the copyrights to all copyrightable material in its publications, and to the individual contributions therein, in order to protect the interests of ISAROB, its authors and their employers. ISAROB will make every reasonable effort to act in the interests of employers/authors as well as in its own interests. For all third party republication requests, ISAROB requires that:

- * The consent of the first-named author be sought as a condition in granting republication rights.
- * The consent of the employer be obtained as a condition in granting permission for reuse of a paper or portion thereof for promotion/marketing purposes.

If you are employed and you prepared your paper as a part of your job, the rights to your paper initially rest with your employer. In that case, when you sign the copyright transfer form, we assume you are authorized to do so by your employer and that your employer has consented to all the terms and conditions of this form. If not, it should be signed by someone so authorized.

For jointly-authored papers, either all the authors should sign, or one may sign as an authorized agent for all. For U.S. government-sponsored work where not all authors are government employees, any non-government author should sign part A; authors who are government employees need not sign.

All questions regarding ISAROB copyright policy should be directed to ISAROB Secretariat, arobsecr@isarob.org
